Also, Jaimie Gaggero has been the new Director of the Bureau of Water for a while now. We checked to make sure, and her name is listed as the Director as of a KDHE staff index that was published just this past week.

If you have no additional questions about the compliance order, I look forward to receiving a signed document from your client very soon. I would appreciate receiving a PDF copy via email while the original is sent via certified or express mail.

Thanks, Pat
